RMO 144 6 Dec.

If it is at all possible I believe it advisable for us to have some of our people attend some of the instruction, particularly the lectures on the various types of intelligence. Specifically, in this case I believe that [REDACTED] would find it highly profitable to attend the instruction on economic intelligence. As I stated previously if you have anyone who you desire to attend this instruction, please let me know so that I can make the necessary arrangements.
